

Message from the Mayor

The City of Busselton is a proud long-term sponsor of the Festival of Busselton. I would like to acknowledge the Festival Committee, who is predominantly made up of new members, for their commitment in keeping the festival alive.

I would also like to acknowledge fellow festival sponsors, as it is only through continued local business and community support that these free family events can remain viable and grow. Festival time is synonymous with summertime in the City of Busselton and the lineup this year looks fantastic.

Many of the favourites return, which will please locals and visitors alike! Enjoy the festival offerings and have a safe and happy summer.

- Phill Cronin, City of Busselton Mayor

Explore the history of Busselton through our displays and extensive collection - from the history of the butter industry and Group Settlement, oral histories and everything old contributing to family life.
